1.0 PURPOSE AND BACKGROUND

To celebrate America’s 250th anniversary, the Cumberland County Public Library is participating in North Carolina’s America 250 NC celebration initiative. As such, the Library has received grant funding from the North Carolina Department of Natural and Cultural Resources for a number of celebratory programs and activities, including the design, planning, and painting of a celebratory mural on the side of the Headquarters Library at 300 Maiden Lane in downtown Fayetteville. The Library is seeking qualified artists who can design and produce a mural on the bricks of the Ray Avenue side of the library. The mural will contribute to the celebration of America’s 250th anniversary and North Carolina’s (and more specifically, Cumberland County’s) role in America’s founding. The mural is intended to be completed on the Ray Avenue side of the Headquarters Library by June 2026.

4.0 SCOPE OF WORK & VENDOR'S PROPOSAL CONTENT REQUIREMENTS

4.1 SCOPE OF WORK

The Cumberland County Public Library seeks a mural on the Ray Avenue side of the Headquarters Library at 300 Maiden Lane. The mural will be part of an America 250 NC grant the Library's Local & State History Department has received and will reflect the themes of the grant and the themes' connection to Cumberland County history. The three themes of the America 250 NC's grant are: Visions of Freedom, a Gathering of Voices and Common Ground. The mural must connect to at least one (if not all) of these themes. These themes are further explained in the following section. The mural should also connect to important themes of local history, including the following (but not limited to): the Liberty Point Resolves, the Marquis de Lafayette, Fayetteville State University and Fort Liberty.

The Library intends for the mural to be around 25 by 8 feet on the south-west end of the Ray Avenue side of the library by the Ray Avenue circle and will start around 5-8 feet down from the top of the building (below the indented brick row at the top). Designs or a concept design for the requested public art are to be submitted in proposals. Proposals without a design or concept for the requested art will not be considered. It is imperative that the artist be able to complete the proposed work no later than June 2026.

A. OBJECTIVES

The objective is to construct a mural at the end of the Ray Avenue side of the Headquarters Library that's around 25 feet by 8 feet (this could change based on costs), relating to the following 250 America NC themes:

1. Visions of Freedom: The American Revolution was an important beginning of the journey towards freedom by North Carolinians, which North Carolina residents have continued to expand throughout the state's history. The mural should incorporate different examples of Cumberland County history and its relation to freedom, which ranges from topics such as Reconstruction and Civil Rights to labor movements and could potentially include local figures and movements like Lewis Leary and the desegregation of Fort Bragg.

Proposal Number: RFP #25-20-LB Mural on the Headquarters Library

2. A Gathering of Voices: North Carolina is part of the ‘more perfect union’, and its history reflects all voices. The mural should reflect the diverse gathering of voices, such as loyalists, patriots, regulators, American Indians and other diverse voices from the Revolutionary War to the present day in the region.
3. Common Ground: We are all involved in history and remembering the past, and places carry the story of our struggle and connection to one another. The mural should show common ground and how we must strive for common ground here in Cumberland County, dealing with themes such as the county history of agriculture, military service and voting rights.

The mural should also incorporate figures, events and themes from local history, such as the Marquis de Lafayette and Fort Liberty as well as Fayetteville State University and the Liberty Point Resolves in some way, connecting those themes to the Revolutionary War in Cumberland County and to the themes of the grant.
